5. [] In checking with Mr. John Martin, Jr., Assistant Chief Counsel, House Committee on Ways and Means, Mr. Martin advised that no meeting of the Committee is scheduled for next week and that any scheduling of the Committee meeting for the following week would be dependant upon Mr. Mills' (D., Ark.) return from Arkansas during that week. As a result, the earliest the Committee could meet would be ten days to two weeks. The question of bills, such as H.R. 7216, will be determined quite probably at the next meeting of the Committee and scheduled at that time for hearing.

7. [] Talked with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, concerning the Subcommittee's interest in seeing [] (See Journal of 26 September.) I advised Sourwine that [] was not sure but that we would appreciate the Subcommittee's delaying contact with him for a period of one week adding that we would be in touch with the Subcommittee at that time. Sourwine said they would be glad to do this.

I advised Sourwine that [] (about whom Sourwine had made an inquiry some time ago) was presently under contract to the Department of the Army [] I also advised Sourwine that we had notified the Army of the Subcommittee's interest in talking [] and that the Army had expressed no objection if this could be done in "late autumn." I advised Sourwine that at that time he should contact the Army directly. Sourwine made a notation to this effect.
